

Terms of Use for Subscribers to Creamer Media's Research Channel Africa/MiningWeekly.com Research and other Creamer Media websites:

- 1. Upon receipt of payment by the Subscriber, Creamer Media will provide a username and password, or URL-key, to the Subscriber enabling the appropriate level of access by the Subscriber to the Research Channel Africa, MiningWeekly.com Research and/or other Creamer Media websites.
- 2. The Subscriber may make the username and password generally available to any and all members of the Subscriber's Company, with the technical limitation that for a single user subscription only one person will be able to make use of the username and password at any given time. Should any other members of the Subscriber attempt to make use of the user name and password during such time they will be informed that the said user name and password is currently in use.
- 3. Full versions of Articles, Research Reports and other materials published on the Research Channel Africa MiningWeekly.com Research and/or other Creamer Media websites should always be accessed individually. This subscription does not license the reproduction of such materials for distribution to the members of staff of the Subscriber. A Business Licence which authorises the making of reproductions for members of staff is available from DALRO at <http://www.dalro.co.za/>.
- 4. Extracts or excerpts from Articles, Research Reports and other materials published on the Research Channel Africa, MiningWeekly.com Research and/or other Creamer Media websites may be forwarded to the Subscriber's consultants and employees provided that such consultants are employed by the Subscriber on a full-time or contractual basis and that the extracts and excerpts of such forwarded articles and Research Reports are used only for the work that they are employed to do for the Subscriber. Such distribution by the Subscriber may inter alia take place across the group, including outside of South Africa's borders.
- 5. Extracts or excerpts from the Articles and Research Reports published on the Research Channel Africa MiningWeekly.com Research and/or other Creamer Media websites may be used in the Subscriber's presentations and newsletters and in the Subscriber's reports for external clients, provided that such articles are correctly attributed as having been sourced from Creamer Media's Research Channel Africa and/or Engineering News and/or Mining Weekly and/or Polity.org.za. The above applies both to print and electronic reproductions.
- 6. Under no circumstances may the full text of Articles, Research Reports and other materials published on the Research Channel Africa, MiningWeekly.com Research and/or other Creamer Media websites be re-published or made available by the Subscriber to members outside of the Subscriber or to external clients of the Subscriber.
